¹ According to his marriage record, he was the son of John Desmond ("Massachusetts, Marriages, 1841-1915," index and images, FamilySearch (<https://familysearch.org/pal:/MM9.1.1/N4Z1-BZ8> : accessed 30 Mar 2014), Michael Desmond and Ann Daily, 12 Feb 1850; citing 175, Massachusetts, United States, State Archives, Boston; FHL microfilm 1432876). However, neither he nor his brothers are found in the parish baptismal records for Macroom. He was in San Francisco by March of 1854, for on March 25, 1854 a Michael Desmond appeared in court there before Judge Baker on a charge of public drunkenness: "Michael Desmond, a gentleman who looked as though the pile driver had fallen on him 'just once,' was up for being drunk. Fined $5" (The Daily Alta California, San Francisco, California, March 26, 1854, p. 2) "In this city, 16th inst., Michael Desmond, a native of County Cork, Ireland, aged 40 years. Boston papers please copy. Friends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral at 3 p.m. this day (Thursday), from the residence of his brother, James Felix Desmond, on Mason street, between Broadway and Vallejo." (Daily Alta California, March 17, 1864, p. 6).

² Married 12 Feb 1850, Boston, Suffolk, Massachusetts.

³ "In this city, October 2, 1890, John, beloved brother of William, Felix, and James Desmond, a native of Boston, aged 38 years, 3 months. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral this day at 10 o'clock a.m. from the residence of his brother Felix Desmond, 715 15th avenue. Interment Mount Calvary Cemetery" (The San Francisco Call, San Francisco, Calif., October 4, 1890, p. 8).

"Charged With Murder. Vallejo, October 22—Peter Petersen, who was shot last night by John Desmond, died this morning at daybreak. A coroner's jury held an inquest to-day. John Desmond appeared and made a full confession. He said that he and Petersen were good friends before the quarrel and that Petersen had always been a good friend of his family, having taken his brother Felix Desmond when a child and brought him up. Felix came home drunk Sunday evening and Mrs. Petersen coaxed him to go up to bed, but he refused and changed his clothes and was going out, when Petersen asked him for the night-key, so that he could not come into the house at night and disturb the family. John Desmond, without any provocation, quarreled with Petersen and deliberately shot him three times. The jury returned a verdict of death from pistol wounds inflicted by John Desmond" (San Francisco Chronicle, San Francisco, Calif., October 23, 1883, p. 5).

"On Saturday two inmates of the State Prison were made happy by being discharged before the expiration of their terms of sentence. The governor signed both commutations at the urgent solicitation of the State Board of Prison Directors. John Desmond was convicted of manslaughter in Solano county, in February, 1884, and sentenced to five years imprisonment. The Prison Directors, after a careful review of the testimony, and other facts presented to them, are of the opinion that the act was done in self-defense, and that therefore the killing was an act of justifiable homicide...." ⁴ "Sacramento County may well be proud of its efficient public officials, men and women of wide experience and unquestioned and non-challengeable integrity of dependability, among whom is Felix Desmond, the popular superintendent of the Sherman Island State Farm. He is a native son, and first saw the light at San Francisco on October 15, 1857. His father, Michael Desmond, was a native of County Cork, Ireland, and he married Miss Anna Darley [sic] of the same place. He came to California in the early fifties, and rendered excellent service here as an experienced and hard-working carpenter, more than willing to assist others to get homes and headquarters; and when he and his good wife, who preceded him to the great beyond, closed their earthly careers, they rounded out a record such as anyone might be proud of. The parents of Felix Desmond died when he was a baby and he never knew what it was to have a real father and mother. He was reared by a Mr. McRae, a teamster of San Francisco, and was the third-born in a family of four boys: John, William, Felix and James.

Felix Desmond attended the school of his locality, and when a lad started to make his own way in the world. He received at first two dollars a week, and his job was to thread needles in a carpet factory run by John C. Bell. He then worked for a while in a candle factory, and after that, when he was able to handle horses, took up teaming, and drove for three companies in San Francisco, those of McKinnon, Ayers, and Messrs. Lyons & Collins. He then left San Francisco and went to Stockton, where he worked for George Harris, on a ranch near Oakdale.

Leaving Mr. Harris, where he had become invaluable through his work and his fidelity. Mr. Desmond entered the service of the state of California, and he has been at the State Farm for the past fifteen years. He is now foreman in charge of their ranch of 250 acres on Sherman Island, Sacramento County, which is a part of the State Farm; a self-supporting institution, with about twenty-five inmates from the asylum, the temporarily insane and ailing to a still lesser degree. These (male) inmates do all the work required to operate the farm, which is devoted to the raising of asparagus and vegetables. Mr. Desmond is a Republican, but first, last and all the time, he is a loyal American, enthusiastic for the Golden State.

At San Francisco, on February 28, 1885, Mr. Desmond was married to Blanche Paul, who was born on March 16, 1868, at San Francisco, the daughter of Horatio Paul; and two sons and one daughter have blessed this union, Harry, Roy and Vera. Both sons responded for service in defense of their country in the World War, Roy joining the Pacific Coast Guards, but he was not accorded the privilege of getting to France. He resides in San Francisco. Harry enlisted in the army, on the other hand, trained at Camp Lewis, and crossing over to France, served in the Evacuation Hospital, No. 16. He is married and resides at Cle Elum, Wash., and has one daughter, Elizabeth. Vera married Otto Boyer." (Walter G. Reed, History of Sacramento County, California With Biographical Sketches, Los Angeles: Historic Record Company, 1923, p. 954).

¹⁸ "Veteran Fireman Dies--Stricken on Way to Banquet. Felix Desmond, seventy-four-year-old veteran fireman of San Francisco, and one of three veterans who benefited by the passage of amendment 41 at the recent elections, raising their pensions from $45 to $75 a month, died at San Francisco Hospital Sunday morning. Desmond was on his way to the Veteran Fireman's banquet Saturday night to join his friends and sing two old songs for which he was famous, "Sally in Our Alley" and "Our Engine That Was Housed on the Hill." He never reached the banquet, for he was stricken with paralysis and fell on the street. It was his second stroke. Two young men picked him up and took him home. He was later moved to the St. Francis hospital. Desmond retired from the service more than twenty years ago, but was recalled to duty in 1906. The best of his life was passed in the service of San Francisco. He retired before the raise in pensions was sanctioned, and with his other two friends, Henry Robinet, 70, and Ed O'Sullivan was receiving only $45 a month until the people of San Francisco showed their appreciation of past services by the passage of amendment 41" (The San Francisco Chronicle, San Francisco, Calif., December 7, 1920, p. 18). <http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GRid=72495294>

⁸⁰ Many thanks to Alice Snow (Gloria Alicia Sullivan) great-granddaughter of Juan Desmond, who first led me to investigate the genealogy of this family. Without the information provided by her, it would have been impossible to connect this family with the Desmonds of San Francisco. When his ship made port in Mexico on the voyage from Boston to San Francisco, Juan (John) decided to stay there. He married and started a family, and his descendants are living both in Mexico and in the U.S. today.
