² "OLD RESIDENTS DIE. Brasher Falls. September 27.—Two of our old landmarks are gone. Very few remain of the old settlers. Denis Donivan [sic] died Friday morning at the advanced age of ninety-five years. He was one of the best of men. upright, honest and kind. He was a very mild and gentle old man, loved by both old and young. He leaves a wife and four children, John R., Thomas, Timothy and Ella, who feel his death very much, as he was such a kind husband and father. Jeremiah Desmond died Friday morning also, aged eighty-four years. He has [sic] been in feeble health for some time, and his death was not unexpected. He, like Mr. Donivan, was an upright, honest man, respected by all. He leaves a wife, who is very ill and not expected to recover, three sons and two daughters. He was a brother of Mrs. John Holland and Mrs. C. Daley, of Brashton, Mrs. Daniel Dineen. of Potsdam, and Mrs. Daniel Hurlly, of this place. Both of these old gentlemen were a credit to their families and to the community at large. Their funerals were held on Sunday at the Catholic Church at the same hour. The caskets were placed side by side in front of the altar. A requiem high mass was celebrated and an excellent sermon preached by Father Nyhan. This was a very solemn occasion and all present felt it so. The church was filled and many had to remain outside. It is 22 years since a double funeral was held at this church" (The Commercial Advertiser, Potsdam Junction, N.Y., September 29, 1897, p. 2). <https://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GRid=150517680>

¹³ "On Monday, July 23, 2012, Frank F. Holland, 93, passed away at his Fort Collins home. He was born on Jan. 7, 1919 in Chicago, Ill. to Grace and Jim Holland. He is survived by his wife, and dearest friend of 37 years, Dorothy, who truly completed him; as well as an endless circle of friends. During his married life, Frank shared his life with many animal companions. Sage, rescued from Hurricane Katrina, laid claim as his loyal protector, Bo, the cat with a Buddha belly and spirit, and Sonny, the cat named after the highly respected Sonny Lubick, all miss him dearly. As a priest and champion of social justice, his hope and faith penetrated inner-city Chicago communities that are clearly seen, but rarely noticed. In 1976, Frank moved to Greeley and worked for Catholic Community Services and felt a deep sense of pride in serving as Director of the Weld Interfaith Association. Frank's swift wit, wisdom, and wry sense of humor, will be greatly missed. He never passed up an opportunity to spread laughter and prompt genuine smiles! Please join us to honor Frank F. Holland and celebrate his life on Saturday, Sept. 1, 2012 at 10:30 a.m. at Plymouth Congregational Church, 916 W. Prospect Rd., Fort Collins, CO 80526" (<https://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GRid=96196459>). He married Ellen Desmond a few years after, who survives him with three sons and three daughters. Mr. Hurley was a man of sterling worth, was in business about forty years in this town and no one can say anything to his harm. True in home and church he leaves many friends. Father Nyhan officiates at the church rites this morning and after they lay him to rest. "Peace be to his soul" (The Norwood News, Nov. 13, 1906, p. 5). <https://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GRid=157712974>
