

Some Desmond Families of Old San Francisco, 1849 to 1906
Compiled by William Desmond
Copyright 2016

Introduction

The following descendancies cover the period of time beginning with the first arrival of Desmonds in San Francisco in about 1849, just before California became a state, to the great earthquake and fire of 1906, when what is often referred to as "Old San Francisco" vanished forever. I have tried to include all of the Desmond families that were in San Francisco during this time period. They were compiled from newspaper articles, obituaries, mortuary, cemetery, church, birth, death, marriage, census records, and various other sources and have been revised based upon additional research in 2015. They are not in any particular order.

The numbering system and format are straightforward and may be understood intuitively. Family relationships are indicated by the position of a person's name. A minimum of genealogical symbols and abbreviations are used. Each individual is assigned a unique number in the descendancy depending upon the generation to which he or she belongs and order of birth among his or her siblings. Spouses are assigned the next successive number following that of the person to whom they are married in the chronological order of their marriage. Any individual can be readily identified by his or her unique number. Additional information for many individuals is provided in the notes. The paragraphing of quotations from newspaper articles in the notes has been altered to conserve space, and citations for commonly used genealogical sources, such as the U.S. censuses, California Birth and Death Indexes, etc. have been omitted for the same reason. The abbreviations and symbols used in the chart are as follows:

+ married to ± extra-marital relationship
abt. about
aft. after
b. born
bapt. baptized
bef. before
bet. between
bur. buried
chr. christened
d. died
div. divorced
d.s.p. died without issue (decessit sine prole)
d.s.p.m. died without sons (decessit sine prole malus)
liv. living
res. resided

After law school, he worked as a criminal defense attorney establishing a reputation for compassion, fairness and helping those in need. Appointed by Gov. Jerry Brown, he served as a judge in the San Francisco Courts from 1983-2002. A proud member of the City's legal community, he was respected as a judge for his legal acumen and kind heart. Joe served on the St. Anthony's Foundation Board of Directors, the Citywide Alcoholism Advisory Board, and he was a Friend of Bill W. for over 40 years. One of Joe's great joys in life came from his devoted elementary school friends, lifelong companions who shared many happy times. Joe had a big smile, keen sense of humor, and loved entertaining people with stories, something he did on the very last afternoon of his life. <sup>43</sup> U.S. Navy, Civil War. <http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GRid=3524965> The 1870 U.S. census gives his age as 28, which would make him b. abt. 1842. His wife's age is given as 25, which would make her b. abt. 1845. Apparently, George (b. 1 Jan 1872 according to the California Death Index) was the eldest son, age 0 in the census. Daniel does not appear in the census, so he was not born 1 Jan 1870, as indicated by the Death Index.

<sup>67</sup> "DENVER GIRL BRIDE OF A TURK. SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL. COLORADO SPRINGS, Aug. 18. Colorado Springs society learned with surprise today of the secret marriage at Washington, D.C., a month ago of Countess de la Chesnaye, formerly Miss Madeline Desmond of this city, and Djelal Bey, first secretary to the Turkish embassy at the national capital. They were married twice, first according to the American custom and next according to Turkish rites. They met on a steamship while returning from Paris and the courtship was brief. The bride at one time was stenographer for a wholesale grocery firm here. While in the East she met Count de la Chesnaye. She thought his title came from the French government; whereas it came from the Pope. He believed her an heiress. They were married and each discovered the deception in the other. After the Count cut a swath here, they separated and she secured a divorce. She is a sister of Mrs. Claude Sachs, wife of the editor of the Mining Investor. The Count later married Mrs. W. McK. Barbour, formerly a Miss Colgate, prominent in New York society, after she had been divorced by her husband, then business manager of the Colorado Springs Gazette, because of the Count's attentions to her it is said" (The San Francisco Call, San Francisco, Calif., August 19, 1906, p. 32).

<sup>256</sup> "Jeremiah J. Desmond, a old and well-known citizen, was found dead yesterday morning on the floor of his room in the Marguerite House, at 511 Turk street. Death was due to gas asphyxiation, and all the circumstances indicated that it was accidental. The deceased was a native of Ireland and about 70 years of age. He leaves a wife, three sons and a brother. In early days Desmond was a hatter at the corner of Market and New Montgomery streets. Of late years he has been connected with the local agency of the London and Lancashire Insurance Company. Dr. Chalmers, the local quarantine officer, is a nephew of the deceased. Desmond lived alone at the Marguerite House, his wife, on account of ill-health, preferring to live with two of her sons on a ranch owned by the family at Walnut creek [sic]. One of the sons, Paul Desmond, was employed for many years in the County Clerk's office. William Desmond, another son, was recently assigned to duty in the Assessor's office. The deceased retired to his room Tuesday night in excellent spirits. The appearance of the room yesterday indicated that during the night he must have been taken ill. It is thought that after turning on the gas he fainted before he was able to strike a light. The deceased was attired in his night dress and the arrangement of his business clothing and various articles indicated that before going to bed he had put things in order for the morning. Coroner Hill is certain that death was accidental. He permitted the body to be taken to an undertaking establishment. An inquest will be held today" (The San Francisco Chronicle, San Francisco, Calif., April 20, 1899, p. 2). Originally bur. <sup>270</sup> "Daniel Desmond, an honored member of this Society of Pioneers, died on the 23rd of January, 1903, in the 70th year of his age. Mr. Desmond was born in County Cork, Ireland, October 9, 1833. Having begun the trade of a hatter, at the age of 18 he came to Boston, completed his trade, and went into business at Lawrence, Mass., as manager of the firm of Desmond Bros., in the manufacture of hats. The destruction of the factory by fire compelled him to start new, and it was at that period in his life he came to Los Angeles. Mr. Desmond came to this city October 14, 1868, and has resided here continuously ever since. Immediately upon his arrival he opened an exclusive hat and gentlemen's furnishing store, the first of the kind in the city. He continued in its active management until a few years ago, after it had grown into a large and flourishing establishment, when ill health compelled him to relinquish in favor of his son, C. C. Desmond. His widow and eight children, survive him, all residents of this city, except two married daughters. The children are C. C. Desmond, D. J. Desmond; Misses Nellie, Nora, Kate and Anna Desmond; Mrs. A. M. Shields of San Francisco, and Mrs. C. D. Baker of Arizona. Mr. Desmond was a man of probity and good repute and a good citizen in all the relations of life. As a quiet, Christian gentleman he commanded the sincere respect of all who knew him. This society extends its heartfelt sympathy to his family in their great bereavement" (Annual Publication of the Historical Society of Southern California and of the Pioneers of Los Angeles County, v. 5, p. 300, n.d.). <http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GRid=114012237>

<sup>273</sup> "WELL KNOWN L.A. MERCHANT DIES AT HOME. Cornelius C. Desmond, one of the most prominent and successful merchants of Los Angeles, died early today at the family residence, 958 South Alvarado street. While he had been in ill health for many months, the death of Mr. Desmond came as a shock to business men of the city and to his many friends. A pioneer business man of Los Angeles, Mr. Desmond was responsible to a large extent for the development of the Desmond store, established in 1862 by his father, Daniel Desmond to its present high standing. Prior to his illness Mr. Desmond was not only one of the most prominent business men of the city, but he was a leader in civic matters and his generosity with the various charitable organizations was traditional. He was identified with every movement for the upbuilding of Los Angeles and was a staunch supporter of patriotic causes. His friends were found in all ranks of life. At the time of the San Francisco fire Mr. Desmond devoted a year of his time to relief work in that city. When his health failed some time ago, close friends went to the assistance of Mr. Desmond and continued the work he had begun. These men included, in addition to his brother, the late D. J. Desmond, and the late J. C. Kays, Dan Murphy and William E. Hampton. Mr. Hampton became trustee of the business without remuneration and carried out plans that placed the store organization in its present high position. Mr. Desmond is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Van Ness Clarke, and also by his mother and six sisters, Misses Nellie, Norah, Kate and Anna Desmond of Los Angeles; Mrs. A. M. Shields of San Francisco, and Mrs. C. D. Baker of Yuma, Ariz. Arrangements for the funeral were held in abeyance, pending the arrival here of relatives" (The Los Angeles Evening Herald, Los Angeles, Calif., December 22, 1920, p. 1). <http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GRid=150826252>
